

Proposal to remove reference to IPv6 policy document as an "interim" policy document

APNIC Policy Proposal 043-v001

(jordi.palet@consulintel.es)

Summary

- Minor update to the introduction section of the IPv6 Address Allocation and Assignment Policy

Problem Description

- The policy suggest that it is an interim one, however it is not longer the case
- All the policies are subjected to modifications, so in that sense, all are “interim”, but this is not indicated in the others
 - Question of “fairness”

Situation in other RIRs

- This proposal has already been submitted to other regions
- Some of them don't have already this text

Existing vs. Proposed IPv6 Policy

APNIC-089	“interim”
Proposed Modification	Remove the statement
