

Draft charter

The charter of the Database SIG is to examine developments in the operation of the APNIC Whois Database and to discuss related issues affecting registration practices, database security, specification of objects and database features.